Ohio Haunted Tour Company Voted Into Nations Top 10 Best Ghost Tours for 2008

Canal Fulton, Ohio:

Haunted Heartland Tours were recently voted on in a poll sponsored by Haunted America Tours, to be one of the most popular ghost tours in the nation for 2008, beating out cities like Las Vegas and Orlando.

Coming in at number 9, Haunted Heartland Tours was voted into the Top 10 by past tour guests for the 2008 list of Best Ghost Tours in the Nation. In 2007 Haunted Heartland Tours broke into the Top 10 and placed at number 10 last year.

Owner Sherri Brake-Recco says that her tours popularity is do to the fact that it is a blend of history , hauntings, legend and lore. Brake-Recco also utilizes the use of investigative equipment on many of her tours so that the experience can be had by all who attend.

Now in its fourth year, Haunted Heartland Tours is a year round haunted history event company. The company features haunted bus trips to locations such as Gettysburg, The West Virginia Pen, Mothman Prophecy tours, and ventures thru 4 states seeking the haunted. Local haunted trips in Ohio have ventured to places such as Zoar, Rogues Hollow, Mansfield Reformatory, Malabar Farm, Massillon Cemetery and the Hercules Engine Factory in Canton. Brake-Recco's tours also include nearly 40 haunted walking tours per year in the quaint town of Canal Fulton Ohio as well as haunted dinner events, and nighttime cemetery walks. Haunted Heartland Tours averages 120 events per year and does fund raisers and benefits for local historical and cemetery associations.

For the month of October, the Haunted History Walks of Canal Fulton will be seen gathering every Friday and Saturday night and on Halloween night at the corner of Market and Canal Street in historic downtown Canal Fulton Ohio. Tours are at 8 pm and again at 10 pm and cover one mile. Cost is $10 per person with ages 10 and under being free. Reservations are needed and can be made online at www.HauntedHistory.net for more information call 330-412-6114.
