Pro Football Hall of Fame Celebrates Senior Citizen's Day

The Pro Football Hall of Fame's seventh annual Senior Citizen's Day will take place on Wednesday, September 26, 2007. Seniors, 62 years old and older, are invited to visit the Pro Football Hall of Fame that day and take advantage of a number of specials including free admission to the museum and free health screenings.

The Hall of Fame will have extended hours on the 26th and will be open from 7:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Seniors can enjoy touring the Hall of Fame's exhibits that feature one-of-a-kind artifacts. From the Hall's spectacular Hall of Fame Gallery featuring the bronze busts of the 241 enshrinees, to the Enshrinee Mementos Room highlighting many interesting pieces of memorabilia from the Hall of Famers, to the Pro Football Today exhibition area that features great moments from today's stars, visitors will see the complete history of pro football's unique story.

Several presentations will take place throughout the day. They include:

- Pro Football's Unusual Objects, 9:30 a.m., 12:30 p.m. and 3:30 p.m.
- Evolution of the Football Helmet, 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.
- Stories Behind the Artifacts, 11:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.

Also, Aultman Health Foundation will offer free general health screenings and informational booths on senior care throughout the building from 7:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Free tests include cholesterol screenings, triglycerides screenings, blood sugar screenings, diabetes risk assessments, breast cancer risk assessments, blood pressure screenings, cardiac risk assessments, body fat analysis, weight management tips, therapy services, and home safety tips.

No reservations are required for the health screenings. However, for optimal results, individuals are recommended to fast 12-16 hours prior to the cholesterol, triglycerides, and blood sugar screenings.

In addition, staff from Sharon Lane Health Center, PrimeTime Seniors, PrimeTime 5-0 and PrimeTime Health Plan will be on site to provide information about their senior services.

All seniors will receive complimentary souvenirs from both the Pro Football Hall of Fame and Aultman Health Foundation, a discount coupon to save 10 percent in the Museum Store, and complimentary cake, coffee and tea.

Adults and children will be admitted at the Hall of Fame's regular admission rate of $16 for adults and $10 for children.
